THE DOOM OF BAHAMUT - PLAYER'S HANDOUT

This micro-campaign takes place in the small Village of Fuling. A sleepy peaceful village located high in the Angzh mountains surrounded with some of nature's most incredible beauty. The village is located on the tiny island-kingdom of Nirimsea. The island is populated almost entirely of the Nirimsese

Dragonborn. The Nirimsese culture places a high importance on honor, hard work – particularly in the pursuit of a craft – and politeness.

The village is also home to the Temple of Bahamut (Ryū no Jī). A serene temple that focuses on meditation and relaxation. Every year thousands of visitors from across the world come to visit the temple. Many contribute a tiny parchment to the platinum capsule at the center of the wooden shrine. Written on these parchments are solemn oaths sworn to Bahamut (Ryū) swearing to commit an act of justice in his honor. Upon completion of the deed the worshiper is hopeful to gain favor with the dragon-god.

The economy in the village is largely driven by the tourism industry as many thousands come to the village on the pilgrimage to the temple. Fuling is known for its healing springs called the Onsen. The village is also home to some of the finest artisans in the kingdom as many visitors make purchases of fine goods throughout their stay.

The most well known of which are Ryaka's Fine Goods (Ryaka no rō Ie) and Hazuyo's Better Goods (Hazuyo no taro Ie). The fierce competition between these two adjacent artisan shops makes them a popular destination for visitors of the village.

BACKGROUND

Before you begin, please think about the following questions:

- You are a visitor in the village, what is your reasoning for visiting the village?
- What all have you done throughout your visit to the village?
- Did you meet any interesting characters throughout your visit?
- You're nearing the end of your visit, where does your character intend to travel next?

HINT:

The village is visited by thousands of pilgrims to pay homage to the Temple of Bahamut. The village is also well known for its healing springs known as the Onsen and its fine craft goods.

Pay a visit to <http://ao.opendnd.org> to find more notable characters in the village or feel free to come up with your own.

VILLAGE OF FULING

Fujiya Lodge is a popular lodging establishment. The ornate wooden lodge is located a few minutes walk from the village centre and overlooks some of the village's most beautiful scenery.

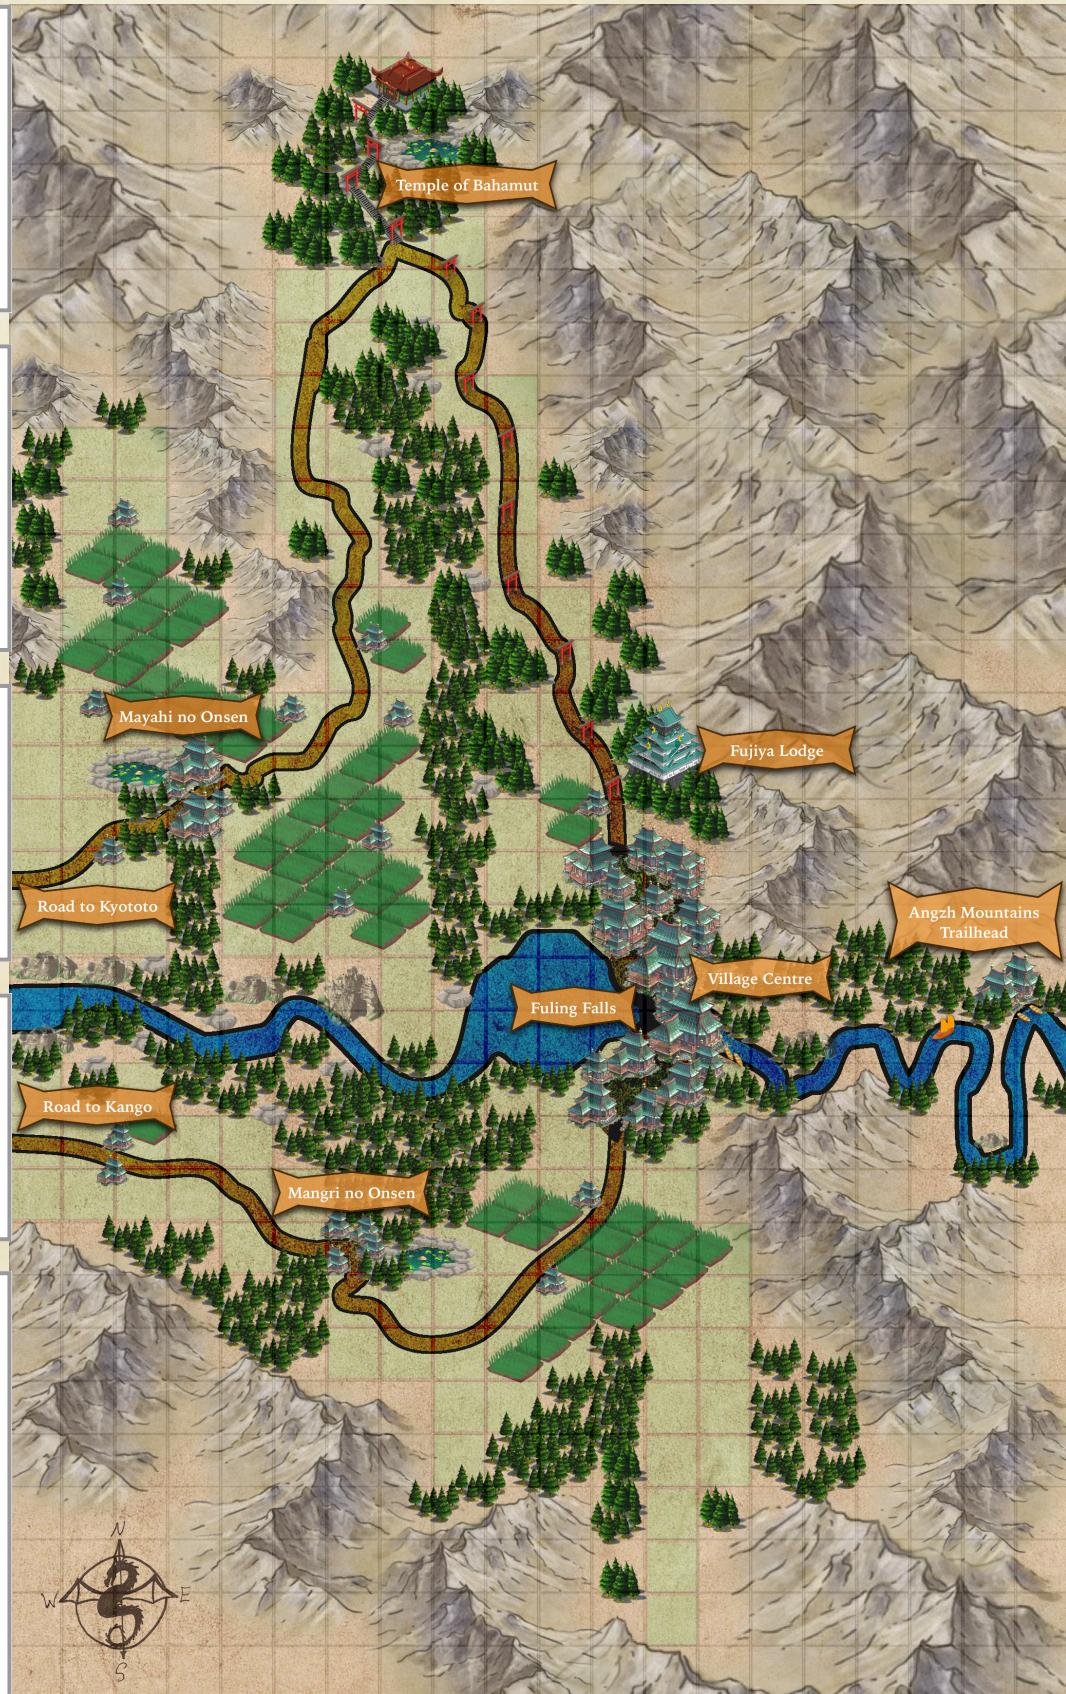

Temple of Bahamut sits at the highest point in the village. It's simple appearance includes many meditation rooms. A platinum capsule is positioined towards the center of the temple.

Village Centre contains many artisan shops and the Head Dragon palace. There is an intricate wooden bridge that overlooks the enormous waterfall – Fuling Falls.

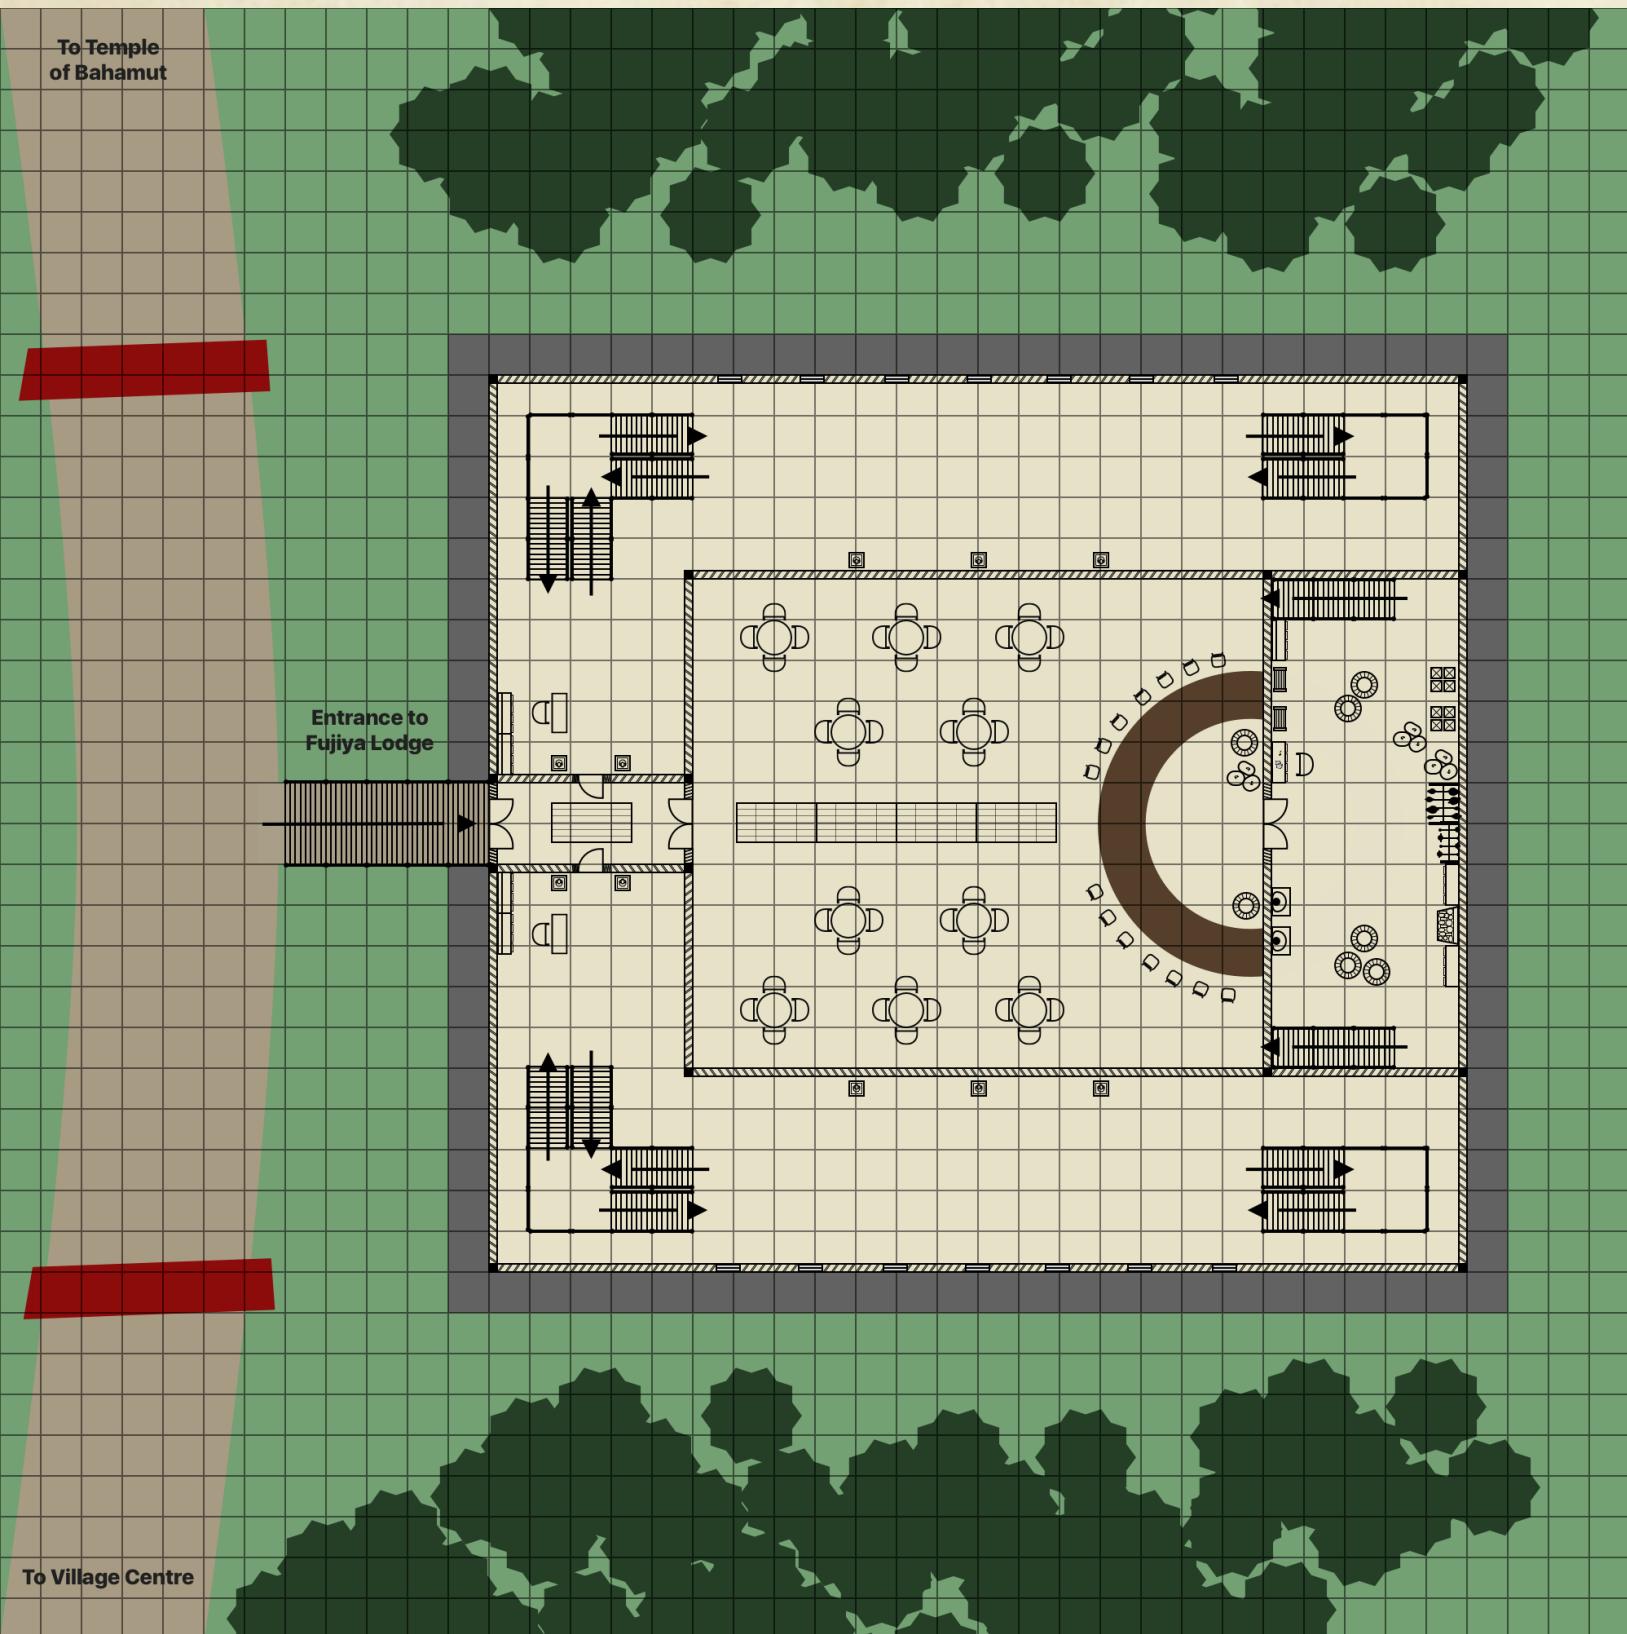

Mayahi no Onsen & Mangri no Onsen are rival hot springs popular for relaxation and healing. The springs include a lodge for food and rest.

Angzh Mountains
Trailhead and lodge are available by boat from the Village Centre. The trailhead goes deep into the mountains and many visitors come to Fuling just for the easier route into the mountain range.

The only roads into the village come from the cities Kango and Kyototo.
